Common Drinking Cups—Prohibited in Public Places. (Reg. Bd. of H., Sept. 29, 1914.)

SEC. 26. Common carriers, hotels, boarding houses, restaurants, schools, clubs, public buildings, theaters, factories, stores, and all other places where people eat and drink, congregate or patronize, shall not provide any drinking cup, glass, or vessel for common use: Provided, That this regulation shall not be held to preclude the use of drinking cups, glasses, or vessels which are thoroughly cleansed by washing in hot water after use, or those provided for each individual use only.

Note.—This regulation does not apply to private houses.

Common Towels—Prohibited in Public Places. (Reg. Bd. of H., Sept. 29, 1914.)

SEC. 27. The use of the common towel, or towel to be used in common, by the employees, patrons, frequenters of, or the public in any room, closet, pantry, lavatory, or wash room in or attached to any public place, railroad station, boarding house, warehouse, restaurant, saloon, hotel, club, schoolhouse, office building, public office, store, factory, workroom, markets, or any public place where food or drinks are prepared, served, sold, or stored, used by the public or where persons are employed or patronized, is hereby forbidden.

The term "common towel," as used in these regulations, shall be considered to mean a roller towel, or a towel available for use by more than one person without being washed after such use.

Note.—This regulation does not apply to private houses.

Barber Shops—Sanitary Regulation. (Reg. Bd. of H., Sept. 29, 1914.)

SEC. 28. No owner or manager of a barber shop shall knowingly permit any person suffering from a communicable disease, or from a venereal disease in a communicable stage, to act as a barber in said shop.

No person who, to his own knowledge, is suffering from a communicable disease, or from a venereal disease in a communicable stage which might be conveyed to another person by contact, shall act as a barber.

All barber shops, together with all furniture, shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition.

(a) Mugs, shaving brushes, razors, scissors, clipping machines, pincers, needles, and other steel instruments shall be cleansed and sterilized either by steam, boiling water, or in alcohol of at least 60 per cent strength after each separate use.

(b) A separate clean towel shall be used for each person.

(c) Alum or other material used to stop the flow of blood shall be in powder form and applied only on a towel or other clean cloth.

(d) The use of powder puff and sponges is prohibited.

(e) Every barber shop shall be kept well ventilated and provided with running hot and cold water.

(f) Head rests of chairs shall be covered with a towel that has been washed since having been used before or by clean new paper.

(g) Every barber shall cleanse his hands immediately and thoroughly before serving each customer.

(h) No person shall use a barber shop as a dormitory, nor shall any part of the shop be so used.

(i) No barber shall undertake to treat any disease of the skin or any lesions of the skin whatsoever, such as pimples, boils, warts, moles, and the like.
